

is proud to present

ISRAEL AND THE NEW ANTI-SEMITISM: A DEBATE

featuring

Brian Klug, Associate Professor of Philosophy, Saint Xavier University, Chicago and Senior Research Fellow, St. Benet's Hall, Oxford. He is US Consulting Editor of Patterns of Prejudice, published by the Institute for Jewish Policy Research, London, and author of "The Myth of the New Anti-Semitism," The Nation and "A Time to Speak Out," Jewish Quarterly. He is also co-editor, Children as Equals: Exploring the Rights of the Child and Ethics, Value and Reality.

Samuel Fleischacker, Professor of Philosophy at the University of Illinois, Chicago, and Co-Founder/Vice-President of Chicago Peace Now. He is the author of The Ethics of Culture; A Short History of Distributive Justice; "The Way to Calamity Again," Jerusalem Report, and "What Matters About Mahathir."

Rachel Havrelock, Assistant Professor, Jewish Studies & Classics and Mediterranean Studies at the University of Illinois, Chicago. She is also a playwright, "From Tel Aviv to Ramallah," and co-author of Women on the Biblical Road: Ruth, Naomi and the Female Journey.

Gidon D. Remba is President/Co-Founder of Chicago Peace Now and former Senior Editor and Foreign Press Translator in the Israel Prime Minister's Office, Jerusalem. He is the author of "Anti-Semitism: New or Old?—An Exchange," The Nation; "Jewish Ethics and the Palestinian-Israeli Problem," Tikkun; "The Canard of Democratic Peace," Jerusalem Report; "What is Zionism?", and co-editor of From Baghdad to Jerusalem: A New Road to Middle East Peace?

Moderated by Rabbi Andrea London

Thursday, December 16, 2004 7:30 P.M.

Beth Emet, The Free Synagogue

1224 Dempster Street (Corner of Ridge), Evanston

Additional parking available at the Unitarian Church of Evanston, 1330 Ridge (1 block north of Dempster); lot entrance on Greenwood

Speakers will address such questions as:

- Is the Palestinian-Israeli conflict causing an upsurge of anti-Semitism in the Arab and Muslim worlds and in Europe?
- Is anti-Semitism a cause of the Arab-Israeli conflict?
- Is anti-Zionism a form of anti-Semitism?
- Is criticism of Israel ever anti-Semitic?
- Is there a new anti-Semitism?

For parking or synagogue information, please call Beth Emet at 847-869-4230.

For more information about the program, please call 202-728-1893 or visit www.peacenow.org.

To become involved with Chicago Peace Now's efforts, see our website: www.chicagopeacenow.org

To read the Remba-Klug exchange "Anti-Semitism: New or Old?" please visit <http://www.peacenow.org/PNintheN/nation.html>

For over twenty years, Americans for Peace Now has worked through our programs in the United States and our support of the Israeli Peace Now movement (Shalom Achshav) to help Israel achieve a comprehensive political settlement of the Arab-Israeli conflict consistent with Israel's long-term security needs and its Jewish and democratic values. Speakers' views do not necessarily represent those of Americans for Peace Now.